

Fair Oak Local History Talk

Wednesday 27th March at 5.30pm

Fair Oak has a rich history going back many centuries and local historian Helen Douglas will talk about the people who helped to shape the village and look at some of the buildings from the 1800s onwards which reflect life at that time. Using old photographs they capture everyday life as this one does of the village square taken in the early 1900s.

The talk will take place on Wednesday 27th March from 5.30-6.30pm at Fair Oak Community Library, Campbell Way, SO50 7AX. Copies of Helen's book The History of Fair Oak and Horton Heath will be available for sale.

To book your place email hello@fairoakcommunitylibrary.org or phone 023 8017 6744. There will be a small charge of £3 at the door for adults to help support the library which is a registered charity run by volunteers.
